

Aurelio García-Miró is a Senior Managing Director leading Conway MacKenzie's Latin American practice. He brings more than 16 years of experience in advising boards, senior management, creditors and taking board representation in operational and financial restructuring situations in Latin America, Europe and the US. Aurelio has extensive experience in executing restructuring, performance enhancement, and transformation roles across a wide range of industries, including infrastructure, manufacturing, retail, TMT, real estate, automotive, and aviation.

Since January 2015, Mr. Garcia-Miro leads CM's team advising the Government of Puerto Rico in liquidity planning and financial reporting, including assisting in the development of baseline projections for the General Fund ("GF"), the TSA and key component units of the island.

Mr. Garcia-Miro is a member of the board of directors, appointed by the convertible bond holders, of a distribution and retail group with $1.2bn in revenue operating in South America. In other past engagements, Mr. Garcia-Miro was CRO of a Mexican engineering company with c. 25% of market share of off-shore oil rigs and platform; advised the board of a hospital operator with sales of €250 million and 13 centers in working capital and cash optimization. He was also the interim head of corporate controlling with Visicorp, an € 800 million auto-parts manufacturer based in Germany. Mr. Garcia-Miro was Board Commissioner for the bond holders of a global printing and business services group with sales of €220m, vetting the restructuring plan, monitoring progress on improved reporting, governance and restructuring implementation milestones, and designing the strategic deleveraging scenarios.

Prior to joining Conway MacKenzie, Aurelio was Senior Managing Director and head of the Corporate Finance Practice in Spain for FTI Consulting. Before that, Aurelio was Senior Director and head of Alvarez & Marsal's restructuring practice in Spain. Before joining Alvarez & Marsal, Aurelio was a director of the McGraw-Hill Companies International Publishing Group, managing turnaround and integration projects in North America, Spain, and Portugal.

Aurelio has a Master's degree in Business Administration from Columbia Business School in New York, and a Bachelor's degree in Business and Finance from Universidad del Pacífico in Lima, Peru. He is fluent in English and Spanish, and has a basic knowledge of Portuguese and Italian.