Wade Angus has over 20 years experience representing clients in cross-border M&A, joint ventures, private equity, and restructuring transactions in the United States, Latin America, and Europe. His practice focuses on cross-border M&A in Brazil and throughout Latin America, where he has extensive experience in the energy, transportation and infrastructure, financial services, media, and telecommunications sectors.

Wade has represented companies such as Andrade Gutierrez, S.A.; Citigroup Global Markets; Cosan S.A. Indústria e Comércio; Fluor Corporation; Gas Natural Fenosa; GIC Special Investments (Government of Singapore Investment Corporation); Group 1 Automotive; Intesa Sanpaolo S.p.A.; Itaú-Unibanco; Mastercard International, NII Holdings, Inc.; PepsiCo; Schneider Electric Industries; Verizon Communications Inc.; and WL Ross & Co.

Wade advised Verizon Communications in its $3.6 billion sale of data centers to Equinix, Inc. in the United States and Latin America. He has advised NII Holdings in numerous transactions, including its partnership with AINMT Holdings AB to jointly own and operate Nextel Brazil, and NII Holdings' $178 million sale of Nextel Argentina to Group Clarin, which Latin Finance named as its 2015 "Domestic M&A Deal of the Year."

Wade is a frequent speaker on cross-border M&A and private equity, has authored articles on private equity and M&A, among other topics, and has been a guest commentator on CNBC. He is a member of the board of directors of the Brazilian-American Chamber of Commerce.
